

CEDIA EXPO REVIEW

TRIBUTARIES

Another buzz-worthy moment at CEDIA was produced by Tributaries, when company president Joe Perfito (center) gave away a 2008 Mini Cooper S Clubman to lucky dealer Larry Scott of Artistic Sound and Video. Michael Pup (left) of Bay Marketing represented Scott at the drawing, after Utz Baldwin (right) drew his name.

SonicPrint™ panels help control excessive reverberation and echo that are caused by hard surfaces like drywall, concrete or wood. Strategically placing SonicPrint™ panels on the walls absorb unwanted sound energy so you can hear your music and movies as they were intended to be heard. Visit our website and learn how to improve the look and feel of your kitchen, rec room, home theater, conference room and more!
